EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21, 1864.)
Dear Sir: Dr. Kennedy, bearer of this, has some apprehension that Federal officers, not citizens of Louisiana, may be set up as candidates for Congress in that State. In my view there could be no possible object in such an election. We do not particularly need members of Congress from there to enable us to get along with legislation here. What we do want is the conclusive evidence that respectable citizens of Louisiana are willing to be members of Congress and to swear to support the Constitution, and ling to be members of Congress and to swear to support the Constitution, and that other respectable citizens are willing to vote for them and send them. To send a parcel of Northern men here as representatives, elected as would be un-derstood (and perhaps really so) at the point of the bayonet, would be disgrace-tal and dangerous, and were I a member of Congress here, I would vote against admitting any such man to a sent. dmitting any such man to a sent.
Yours, very truly,
American Lincoln.

Hon. G. F. Shepley.

The following statistics were supplied to the Shah: The area of London is 690 square miles; the total population is 4,025,659; the total length of streets and roads patrolled by the metropolitan police is 7,612 miles, and the addition or increase in the length of streets during the past ten years is 3.623 miles; the strength of the police 10.912."
